

REDEMPTIVE AFFIRMATIONS

I declare boldly and unapologetically: I am REDEEMED! Christ, in His unparalleled act of love, has settled the account for me, once and for all.

The precious blood of Jesus sanctifies me completely – spirit, soul, and body. I am not just partially redeemed; I am wholly and eternally His.

Every chain that once bound me has been shattered because Jesus, the Redeemer, paid the ultimate ransom. I am liberated from every form of captivity; freedom is my birthright.

Sin and its repercussions have no hold on me; I am RANSOMED. The consequences of my past have been eclipsed by the grace that flows from the blood of the Lamb.

My mind is a sanctuary of peace, a testament to my redemption. Every thought bows to the authority of the finished work of Christ. I am redeemed in my mind, and tranquility is my inheritance.

In my body, by His stripes, I was healed, and I therefore stand redeemed in divine health. Sickness and disease have no place within me; I am a vessel of wholeness.

Because my Redeemer lives! Abundant life is not just a promise; it's my reality, overflowing in every dimension of my existence.

What was lost is being miraculously RESTORED unto me! Joy, strength, and passion are rejuvenated. Lost resources, relationships, and opportunities find their way back to me. Even lost time is restored unto me and my years are renewed.

Everything stolen by the adversary is returned in abundance. I am not just recovered; I am thriving in the richness of God's restoration plan.

I am no longer lost in the chaos of life; I am FOUND in the arms of my Redeemer, protected from all the wiles of the devil. I am ACQUITTED of all charges – debts paid, sins forgiven, and grace abounding.

This year is not just another chapter; it's my YEAR OF REDEMPTION! My Redeemer lives, and I walk in the consciousness of being truly redeemed, forgiven, and accepted.

In the powerful name of Jesus, I declare: I am REDEEMED! This is my Year of Redemption!
